

Hello everyone,

This Sunday we can genuinely worship together as our online service is LIVE on YouTube at 10:30 AM Sunday morning from Martin and Andy's living room.

Just click on the link around 10:30 AM Sunday morning – it won't work until then. But the recording will be available in full afterwards if you don't manage to catch it at 10:30 AM.

Have a great day!

Every blessing

Julie

How are you doing after three or more weeks in "lock down" and the prospect of at least three more weeks? In some ways, we will be adapting, but in other ways, we are still frustrated and confused.

I am reminded as I am writing to you, in these days of communicating without meeting that we are all "letters" that God sends out into the world to be read by anyone that we come into contact with. Paul wrote in his second letter to the Corinthian church (even though their relationship had been a bit challenging): "You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone. You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the Living God, not on tablets of stone but in tablets of human hearts."

And indeed, many of you may be reading this on a "tablet". Remember that every time we communicate, in whatever way, during this time of separation, that it can be Christ's word to the one we are sharing with, if we share what is in our hearts.

As usual, Rhoda has prepared all the services for the children's and youth group which are available on YouTube:

Did you manage to connect with Spring Harvest Home on YouTube? There are masses of talks/worship/kids sessions etc. still available to watch. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bw_t1J2734g

Jim Norton sent us this link to a YouTube version of "Somewhere over the rainbow" with some thoughtful captions added. Thanks Jim!
